DUCERE GROUP PTY LTD

Mat Jacobson – Founder & CEO

Ducere is a recognised global leader and innovator in the development of Higher Education technology and curriculum in partnership with major universities. Delivering strong profits, with universities around the world we partner with global leaders and global corporations to provide the most industry relevant, digital based degrees.

GREENFIELDS EXPLORATION PTY LTD

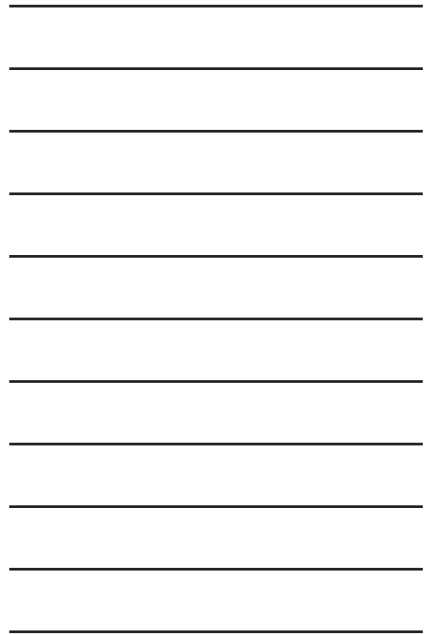

Jonathan Bell – Managing Director

Greenfields Exploration explores for large, high-grade copper, cobalt, and nickel deposits in mining-friendly Greenland. The demand for these metals is expected to grow substantially due to their use in lithium-ion batteries and electric vehicles. With a landholding that is approximately 19 times the size of the company's peers', it's scale improves the probability of hosting deposits. As there is little prior exploration within much of the area, a high-resolution, high-quality exploration program is planned to maximise the first-mover opportunity.

E AGRI PTE LTD

Patrick Duffy – CEO

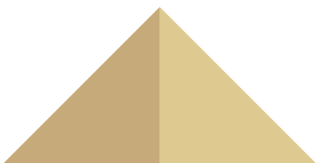

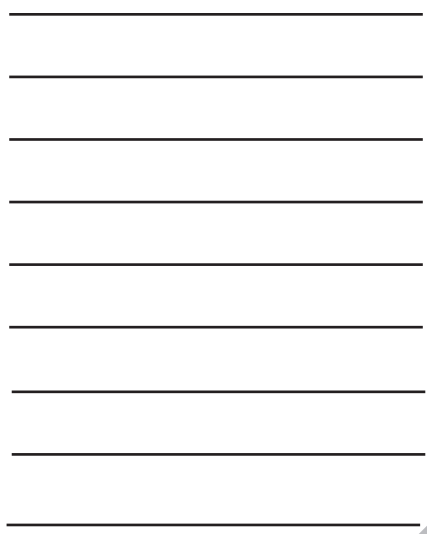

E Agri has developed an automated, modular vertical cropping system for growing leafy green vegetables and herbs – disrupting food supply chains for high-density city environments. Following a successful pilot facility, E Agri is preparing to build two showcase facilities in Melbourne and Jiangsu Province and a test facility in Singapore over the next four months.

THE LIFEART COMPANY PTY LTD

Mike Grehan – President & CEO

Population growth of major cities has resulted in cremation as the leading method of body disposal globally. Regulation of emissions is a major issue for governments and industry. LifeArt has patented technology for low emission coffins & caskets which can be used just like traditional products. With recent improved performance and lower costs LifeArt has established itself as a reliable international supplier. It is seeking to establish manufacturing facilities in partnership with leading funeral industry players in several markets.

CANYA

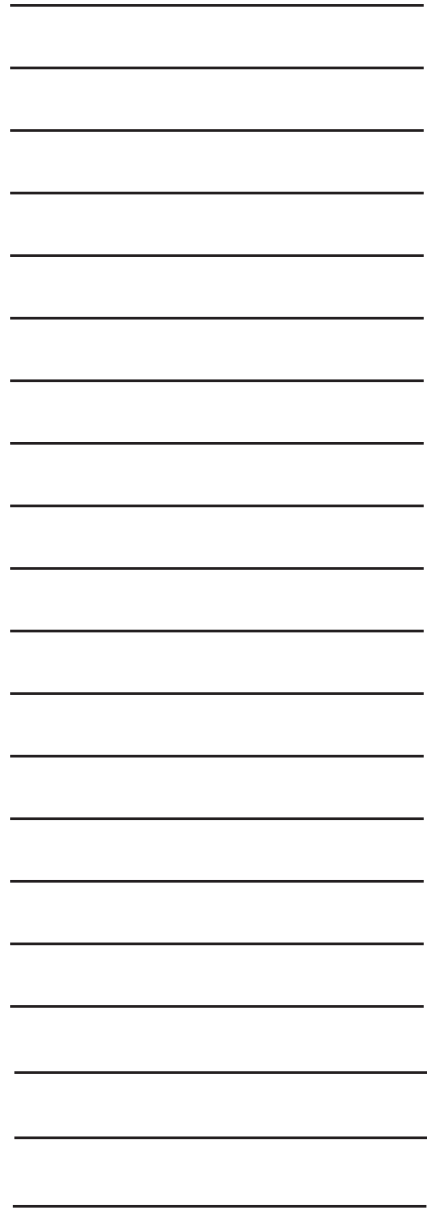

Jet Yap – CFOO

CanYa is an autonomous marketplace of peer-to-peer services built on blockchain technology, where users can spend and receive cryptocurrencies for services. The market exceeds $1tn globally, growing at 10% each year. CanYa has an existing user-base and platform. CanYa has successfully closed a $1.5m pre-sale and is taking EOIs for further private sales before a public sale in November 2012.

MATCHMOVE PAY PTE LTD

Edwin Chen – VP Corporate Development

A highly awarded Singapore headquartered fintech providing a secure plug-and-play, regulated banking-as-a-service platform that includes payments, cross-border remittances, lending and cryptocurrencies. MatchMove today serves >30 million users across 40+ Enterprise clients with another 100+ enterprises currently testing our platform, across various sectors including global consumer brands, banks, insurance, telecom/media, coming from SE Asia, Australia, India, China, LatAm and Europe.

CROPLOGIC LTD (ASX: CLI)
